

The present Competition Compliance Policy (hereinafter, the "Policy") was approved by the Board of Directors of Obrascón Huarte Laín, S.A. on 10 November 2021, and made available to all employees on the intranet and corporate website for mandatory compliance.

Through adoption this Policy, the OHLA Group, by express decision of the Board of Directors of Obrascón Huarte Laín, S.A., assumes the firm commitment of all the Group's employees to respect free competition, not authorising or consenting in any way or under any circumstances that its members or employees may participate, even by omission, ignorance or mere negligence, in any form of anti-competitive, unfair or unlawful conduct, and establishing the necessary measures to prevent its commission.

Likewise, it formally ratifies its position of zero tolerance against any anticompetitive conduct that may be committed in the scope of the activities it carries out. The OHLA Group is firmly committed to ensuring free competition in the market, developing our business competitively in all the markets in which we operate. Our objective is to ensure that all employees of the OHLA Group conduct themselves professionally with honesty, integrity and transparency, as set out in our Code of Ethics.

For this purpose, we have equipped ourselves with internal regulatory instruments and adequate control and management systems in the field of detection and prevention of anti-competitive practices.

The present Policy requires acting in accordance with the provisions of current legislation on regulatory compliance and competition law and refraining from any action that could constitute collusive conduct between companies, abuse of a dominant position, unfair conduct that distorts competition or any other infringement or breach of the obligations provided for in the applicable regulations.

This policy is mandatory for all OHLA Group employees, including directors and members of the boards of directors. Likewise, this policy will also apply to those third parties who formally adhere to it.

The Compliance Department is in charge of ensuring compliance with and distribution of this Policy. Consequently, it is vested with authority, independence and impartiality, without affecting what is foreseen as its mandate and supervision by the Auditing & Compliance Committee.

The Internal Audit Department will conduct periodic and confidential audits of this Policy, as well as of other applicable rules and procedures

The OHLA Group commits to periodically arranging informative courses on this Policy, promoting compliance with it through appropriate communication and training programmes, specific and adapted to the Group's activities in order to prevent the commission of anti-competitive conduct of any kind.

The Group's entire staff is obligated to report any fact, act, conduct or behavior that is contrary to this Policy.

The Ethics Communication Channel provides the necessary measures to detect possible breaches and to report conduct that may be associated with anti-competitive practices. It is accessible on the intranet, web and by mail, at the following addresses:

Intranet: OHLA-Link.com/ Ethics Reporting Channel

www.ohla-group.com/ Ethics and Integrity/ Ethics Reporting Channel

Ethical Channel of the OHLA Group – Compliance Department

Pº de la Castellana, 259D 28046 Madrid, España

OHLA Group's Auditing & Compliance Committee will ensure that an exhaustive analysis is completed of any potential infringements, always guaranteeing confidentiality and the absence of any retaliation.

Failure to comply with the provisions of this Policy may entail, in accordance with the local legislation applicable in each region, serious consequences for the Group, such as, among others, the imposition of fines, the limitation of the ability to contract with the Public Administration or possible claims for damages to any of the OHLA Group companies and/or their managers.

Likewise, the OHLA Group may apply the appropriate punitive measures (including, where appropriate, dismissal) to any employee and/or manager who commits any anti-competitive infringement, in accordance with the various applicable labour laws.

The present Policy will be subject to review and continuous improvement, especially when regulatory, social, business or any other circumstances so require.

Any questions, suggestions or recommendations regarding this Policy must be notified to the Group's Compliance Department.